Weekly Review

Please note, the Weekly Review does not include all calls to which the Lakeville Police Department responded. Incidents included here are based on severity, impact on public safety or other factors.

- Officers completed a hit and run property damage report at 202nd Street and Dodd Boulevard. The suspect refused to stop after the accident and was located later on by officers and cited for driving with a revoked license, failure to provide proof of insurance, and leaving the scene of an accident.
- Another property damage accident occurred at Jaguar Path and Kenwood Trail. The at-fault driver stopped at the stop sign but then pulled out in front of traffic on Kenwood Trail causing the collision. They were cited for failure to yield.
- Officers responded to a vehicle collision at Pilot Knob Road and 179th Street West where one vehicle was hauling a couch that flew out of his truck and struck another vehicle. The driver of the truck was driving after revocation and had no insurance and was cited for multiple offenses.
- A theft report was completed for a $6000 four-seater golf cart that was stolen from 8XXX 202nd Street West. The following day the golf cart was located nearby with no damage.
- Officers responded to a two-vehicle crash at Holyoke Avenue and 194th Street West. The at-fault driver failed to yield to the right of way to the other vehicle on Holyoke causing the collision and was cited.
- Officers responded to a theft at 17XXX Judicial Road where two victims had their purses and several thousand dollars worth of electronics stolen from their vehicles while they were unloading them. The investigation is currently ongoing, but this is a reminder to always lock your vehicles even if you are quickly returning.
- Two vehicles at 19XXX Juno Trail had their windows smashed in, and their wallets and purses stolen from inside. The investigation is ongoing, but this serves as a reminder to keep your valuables out of sight.
- Officers responded to a report of a male passed out in the front seat of a vehicle. Contact was made with the subject who was passed out in the drivers seat with the keys in the ignition. Officers observed signs of impairment and after the driver failed the standard field sobriety tests, he was placed under arrest for DWI and transported to Dakota County Jail.
- Officers were dispatched to a past action burglary where the victim reported her ex-fiancé had entered her residence and destroyed her property. Officers located the suspect who provided a statement admitting to entering the residence and damaging property after becoming enraged over their relationship. The suspect was ultimately arrested for burglary and damage to property and was subsequently transported to Dakota County Jail.
