The image features the word "RIVER" in a bold, black, sans-serif font, centered horizontally. The text is enclosed within a graphic structure of thick black lines. On the left side, a vertical line descends from the top, where it meets a horizontal line that extends to the right, forming an L-shape that frames the top-left corner of the text. On the right side, a vertical line descends from the top, where it meets a horizontal line that extends to the left, forming another L-shape that frames the top-right corner of the text. The background is a solid, vibrant blue color.
